

CCCAOE Report for SCCRC Aug. 25
Mike Hoffman, Moorpark College

1) The California Community College Association of Occupational Educators (CCCAOE) is in the process of hiring a new executive director. In the interim, College of the Canyon's Gary Quire is temporarily serving in the role.

2) New state Chancellor Sonja Christian is on the road presenting her Vision 2030. Last week she was in Los Angeles again promoting its three goals: Equity in Access, Support, and Success. Key elements include dual enrollment, baccalaureate programs, and increasing financial aid. She appeared in an article in the Los Angeles Times this week talking about her vision for the system.

3) Fall 2023 CCCAOE Conference: Oct. 18-20, with pre-conference sessions on Oct. 17. Conference features a new schedule format.

- Tuesday October 17, 2023 will be a full day of Pre-Conference sessions which is included in everyone's Conference Registration.
- Thursday October 19, 2023 will now be a full day of break out sessions, we have larger rooms and less break out sessions that will allow members to attend more breakout sessions than they did in the past conferences.
- Luau Pool Party - wear your summer casual, and swimming is encouraged. (Sandals, shorts, swimwear, t-shirts, Hawaii style clothing etc....)

Registration is going strong at 368. Price has increased this year to $945, reflecting conference costs that have increased 34% in the past year.

The Omni is sold out.

CCCAOE is looking for contributions to raffle baskets.
