

South Central Coast Regional Consortium

October 2024 Meeting

Student Success Story Collection

- Rising Scholars program
- AI and the future of learning
- Dual enrollment
- Climate resiliency
- Apprenticeship pathways
- Collaboration with your local workforce development board
- Healthcare pathways

- Completed a degree or certificate program
- Earned an Associate Degree for Transfer
- Earned a bachelor's degree at a community college
- Transferred to a UC or CSU
- Started working in their area of study

Strong Workforce Regional Plan Update

Due January 31st

Baccalaureate
Degree Provisional
Approvals

Santa Barbara
City College –
Health Information
Management

Allan Hancock
College – Applied
Professional
Studies

Strong Workforce Evaluation

The Strong Workforce Program is expected to be "evaluated" again this spring as part of the annual budget development process.

Unspent funds in NOVA will likely be scrutinized.

Upcoming In-person events

- January 24th Regional Meeting at Allan Hancock College
- Vision, 2030 two-day convening with the Chancellor's Office, CEOs, CIOs, CSSOs, Instructional administrators, CTE Deans, Institutional Researchers, faculty leads, and workforce development staff, will be held February 27-28—location TBD.
- Over two days, district and college teams will have an opportunity to engage data sets aligned to Vision 2030, and to frame local plans in line with system goals.

---

Steering Committee Update

---

Gather data on successful initiatives from other regions to inform our strategies.

Offer tours of different campuses for regional meetings to increase faculty and administrator involvement.

Have a facilitated conversation to define a clear vision and advocacy agenda for the consortium.

Provide regular updates from the CIO group to ensure alignment and collaboration between CEOs and CIOs.

Schedule more in-person meetings to enhance engagement and collaboration.

Action steps will be discussed further at the next meeting.