Statewide Convening

Community College Apprenticeship Program Creation and Expansion

Long Beach City College

Join the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office, Foundation for California Community Colleges, Rancho Santiago Community College District, and the LAUNCH Apprenticeship Network for a two-day statewide convening focused on creating and expanding Registered Apprenticeship Programs.

This engaging event will bring together community college leaders, faculty, and apprenticeship practitioners to explore best practices, connect with peers, and engage directly with industry and workforce partners.

What to Expect:

- Insights from subject-matter experts and practitioners across California
- Strategies for building and scaling Registered Apprenticeship Programs
- Guidance on using labor market information (LMI) effectively
- Employer engagement and partnership-building approaches
- Planning discussions to support campus-level decision-making
- Networking opportunities, including an evening reception

Who Should Attend:

Apprenticeship staff, curriculum chairs, CTE deans, Chief Instructional Officers, and administrators from California Community Colleges with existing or emerging apprenticeship programs. Teams are encouraged to attend together.
