

FREE LIVE WEBINAR AND Q&A

Leveraging Cultural Diversity

Doing Business Around the World

Weds., November 10, 2021
9:00 am PST

REGISTER NOW

bit.ly/leverage-cultural-diversity

The Leveraging Cultural Diversity: Doing Business Around the World webinar will offer attendees a unique opportunity to learn about global business career opportunities from professionals in the public and private sectors. Learn how skills acquired from past work experience and in school can be applied to different jobs along a career path. Terri Morrison, author of the series "Kiss, Bow, and Shake Hands," will provide guidance on cultural diversity in the workplace. Lokesh Dani, Xopolis founder, will demonstrate how the Global Trade Dashboard can help students and faculty identify skills by job position, skills gaps, skills in demand, and much more. With nearly two decades of experience in global trade, Adilene Polis will share her insights on the industry. Richard Swanson will discuss impact of global trade in our economy.

This is one you don't want to miss!

For more information, please contact Adilene Polis, South Central Coast Region Global Trade Regional Director: apolis@pipeline.sbccc.edu

Terri Morrison

Kiss, Bow or Shake Hands®
Series Author

Lokesh Dani

Xopolis
Founder and CEO

Adilene Polis

Global Trade
South Central Coast
Regional Director,
Industry Engagement

Richard Swanson

U.S. Commercial Service
Central Coast
Acting Director

POWERED BY

California
Community
Colleges

Global Trade South Central Coast Region hosted by:

